

CHEMICAL WASTE POLLUTION

PASIR GUDANG, JOHOR

LATEST UPDATE AS OF MARCH 16

1KM

of Sungai
Kim Kim
cleaned

371

patients
still warded

185

patients
allowed to return home

65

new patients
warded

8

patients still in ICU & reported to be in stable condition

111

schools in the Pasir Gudang
district still closed

- The air quality index around Pasir Gudang is at a safe level until this time
- The public is advised not to go near the site of the cleaning works being carried out
- Residents living within a 3km radius of Sungai Kim Kim are advised to reduce their outdoor activities & to use face masks
- Disaster operations control centre 07-2522143 or 07-2532143

Source :

Johor Fire and Rescue Department,
State Health, Environment and Agriculture Committee chairman, Ministry of Energy, Science, Technology, Environment and Climate Change, Ministry of Education & Department of Environment Malaysia

Bernama Infographics